

Greetings!

On behalf of the Latino Judges Association, I am pleased to announce that we are now accepting applications for our Spring 2027 Internship Program.

Our Spring Internship Program is an eight-week program that will provide two law students with a unique internship experience. During the eight-week program, each intern will spend four weeks in an appellate court (Court of Appeals, Appellate Division or Appellate Term) and four weeks in a trial court (Supreme Court, Civil Court, Criminal Court, Family Court or Housing Court) under the supervision of a Host Judge or Justice assigned to that court. The Latino Judges Association Spring Internship Program is open to law students who have completed at least one year of law school.

The Latino Judges Association Spring 2027 Internship Program will begin the week of February 22, 2027, and continue for eight weeks through the week of April 16, 2027. Interns are expected to commit to 20 hours per week for the full eight-week program. Interns are eligible for academic credit or, upon proof that the intern is not receiving academic credit, a stipend of up to $2500.

Applications for the Spring 2027 Law Student Internship Program are due by Friday, November 30, 2026 at 5 PM. Applications and all accompanying materials may be sent via e-mail (preferred) to: Hon. Sallie Manzanet-Daniels at smanzane@nycourts.gov

Or via mail to: Hon. Sallie Manzanet-Daniels
Appellate Division, First Dept.
27 Madison Avenue
